Dear Author with accepted paper in SCOPUS,

SICEST conference is coming in 2 weeks. We realize that you are waiting for announcement of designated publication. Thank you very much for your patience.

Regarding with the review results of your paper, we would like to inform that until now some of the review processes have not completed yet.

The delay in this review process is due to the obligation of SICEST Editorial Board to ensure all the papers for SCOPUS publications will meet the standards from the all the SCOPUS publisher.

Therefore, we apologize for the late notice of the review results.

Some of review results and decision of designated publication have been sent to authors, and the rest still in SICEST editorial board waiting for final decision. We will try our best to complete the process as soon as expected.

We greatly appreciate for your kind understanding.

Best Regards

Dear Author with Paper accepted in SCOPUS Publication,

We are very much appreciated for your kind cooperation. The new and revised version of your paper has received. Hopefully the article is complied with the prescribed template of each publisher and has accommodated the requests of both reviewers. Furthermore, this version will be sent back to the reviewers. If accepted, the paper will soon be in the process for approval to the editor. If not, we will send the appropriate revision or adjustments requests back to you. It would be very much appreciated if you really pay attention to all instructions and revision requests properly so that the publication can be quickly resolved.

Thank you

Dear Dewi

Your article titled

Visualization and Pressure Distribution of Gas-Liquid Flow in  $\frac{3}{4}$  inch Plexyglass Pipe Diameter with the Slope Orientation Upward, Horizontal and Downward

Articles published in MATEC must meet the quality standards as measured by paper format, originality and significance of the contribution.

Based on the recommendation of Editors, you are required to do a further revision as pointed in the file attached. Please read the instructions carefully to avoid mistakes. After revision, please return the manuscript immediately before November 28, 2016. As we know, any delay in returning the manuscript will cause delay in the publishing process. Your cooperation will be very much appreciated.

Thank you.
