Dear Anna Fauziah,

It is my great pleasure to inform you that your paper entitled "Developing of PMRI Learning Environment with Lesson Study System to Improve Pedagogical Ability of Prospective Primary School Teacher Students" has been ACCEPTED with MAJOR REVISION and will be published in the Journal on Mathematics Education (JME). Your paper will be published for forthcoming issues after suitable revision and fulfil the JME's standard.

Congratulations!

Authors are encouraged to carefully consider the reviewers' comments and suggestions for improvement of your manuscript, such as:

1. Need more relevant references on pedagogical competencies such as Shulman, Ball etc.
2. Overall research results and conclusions, what are the implications of the results of this study for the development of mathematics education, especially in Indonesia? This needs to be clarified and offered.
3. English needs to be improved and proofread. The writing needs to be adjusted to the rules of writing scientific papers.
4. Please make sure that your discussion section is suitable and supported by a reputable journal.
5. The "result and discussion" section reports must have the most important findings, including results, analyze as appropriate.
6. Please add more suitable references for at least 30 references from the reputable international journal with their DOI.
7. The manuscript should also have been carefully proofread and similarity check (the proofreading certificate and similarity check result must be attached as supplementary file in revision submission process).

For more content details, please check the reviewers' comment file in your account. Furthermore, the author must make sure all references have DOI and follow this guideline to ensure that your final file is complete and in the correct format (<https://bit.ly/33GvXT3>) for preparing their paper strictly. You can follow the paper that already published in JME.

To support the cost of wide-open access dissemination of research results, to manage the various costs associated with handling and editing of the submitted manuscripts, and the Journal management and publication in general, the authors or the author's institution is requested to pay the Article Processing Charge (APC).
