Dear Chika Rahayu,

It is my great pleasure to inform you that your paper entitled Curious Mind and Early Childhood in the Learning of Introduce Early Mathematics using Mini Games has now been reviewed by experts in the field with major revision decisions.

Authors are encouraged to carefully consider the reviewers' comments and suggestions for improvement of the manuscript, as follow:

Reviewer 1

If I may suggest to the editors, before sending papers to reviewers, could you please return ill-written papers with poor English to the author(s) and ask them to improve their writing. They can resubmit the revised and well-improved paper. For more details, see my comment in the article.

Reviewer 2

1. Conceptual background and some criteria/indicators should be improved.
2. The author should explain and present the methodology deeply.
3. Finding and conceptual findings should be explained accurately.

Reviewer 3

Please check the attached file.

For more details, please check the reviewers' comments in the attached email. Furthermore, the authors must make sure all references follow this guideline to ensure that your final file is complete and in the correct format with all information for preparing their paper strictly by using our new journal template (attached).

Please submit the final revised paper along with the recapitulation of the contents of the revised article, certificate proofread from professional editor, and the similarity check result file (no more than 20%) to the email: jme@unsri.ac.id or via your JME OJS Account as an Author Version. The revised manuscript should be submitted by May 25, 2022; if you anticipate that you will be unable to meet this deadline, please notify the Editorial Office. Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Thank you very much for your cooperation and have a great day.

Kind regards,

Prof. Dr. Minoru Ohtani,
Kanazawa University, Kanazawa, Japan
