Dear Mrs. Yulindasari ,

Your article (Identification of Slope Stability Analysis) is now in a process for publishment in International Journal on Advanced Science, Engineering, and Information Technology (IJASEIT) indexed by SCOPUS.

Articles published in IJASEIT must meet the quality standards as measured by paper format, originality and significance of the contribution.

Based on that request, you are required to do a further revision and add more pages in the manuscript. The total pages required is 6 pages minimum exclude reference.

Please read the instructions carefully to avoid mistakes. After revision, please return the manuscript immediately before April 07, 2017.

Please return it in the due time, otherwise your paper will not be published. Your cooperation will be very much appreciated.

Thank you.
