

Dear Nirwan Syarif,

It is our pleasure to inform you that your abstract entitled:

Performance of Biocarbon Based Electrodes for Electrochemical Capacitor

Nirwan Syarif, Ivandini Tribidasari, Widayanti Wibowo

has been accepted for oral presentation at the 2013 International Conference on Alternative Energy in Developing Countries and Emerging Economies (2013 AEDCEE), which will be held on 30-31 May 2013 in Bangkok, Thailand.

As mentioned in the Call for Papers, we request that you submit your paper using the template attached. Your paper will be reviewed by the Technical Committee for publication in the Conference Proceedings. Also, a selection of papers will be published in a special number of Energy Procedia by Elsevier. Please note that the papers are limited to six (6) pages.

The deadline to submit your paper is March 31, 2013. However, to assure a diligent review of all papers, we kindly request that you submit your paper the earliest possible.

Also, in order for your paper to be published in the Conference Proceedings and be considered for publication in Energy Procedia, we request that you pay the registration fee for the Conference before April 15, 2013. Information on the payment of the registration fee can be found at www.sci.tsu.ac.th/2013aedcee/registration.php.

Please note that the Conference will not be able to provide financial assistance for your participation in the 2013 AEDCEE.

For further information on the 2013 AEDCEE, please visit our website at: www.sci.tsu.ac.th/2013aedcee/index.php

We look forward to receiving your paper, and to meet you in Thailand.

Best regards,

Asst.Prof.Dr.Jompob Waewsak
General Co-Chair, 2013 AEDCEE
