Dear Mr. Muhammad Khosy'in,

We have reached a decision regarding your revised submission to Indonesian Journal of Electrical Engineering and Informatics (JEEI), a Scopus-indexed journal.

Based on the comments from reviewers, your paper (ID 3901) "The Impact of Telemetry Received Signal Strength of IMU/GNSS Data Transmission on Autonomous Vehicle Navigation" requires another REVISION.

The comments and feedback are attached. Please make the necessary changes based on the comments and suggestions.

You have 2 weeks to improve the paper. After revision, please upload the revised version of your paper to the submission system (as author version in the same paper ID number, below the decision, NOT as new paper submission). In addition, please upload another document explaining all answers to the reviewer's comments and corrections made in the revised paper.

The Editor will check whether the submitted revision properly addresses the reviewers' comments or not. A timely response will greatly help fasten the

Dear Muhammad Khosy'in,

We have reached a decision regarding the submission of your revised paper to Indonesian Journal of Electrical Engineering and Informatics (IJEEI), ISSN 2089-3272, a Scopus-indexed journal. It is our great pleasure to inform you that your revised paper with the title "The Impact of Telemetry Received Signal Strength of IMU/GNSS Data Transmission on Autonomous Vehicle Navigation" (ID:3901) has been ACCEPTED for publication in the next issue of the journal. Congratulations!

For the correctness of the metadata (which will appear in the online abstract as well as in the indexing services), please UPDATE the metadata. After log in to your paper in the submission system, click "Edit Metadata" under "Submission Metadata". Several important things to check (and revise if needed):

1. Please include ALL authors that appear in the paper. Check all authors' details (names and affiliations). DO NOT put any academic title (Dr, Prof, etc). Be careful to put the FIRST NAME and SURNAME, and please be consistent between the metadata and the final paper.
2. Make sure that the title and abstract are the same with your paper's title and abstract

Please do this step carefully as it is your responsibility for the correctness of the data.

Your paper is now in the production process for final layout. Please wait for several weeks to get your paper ready to publish on the website. For your information, this is an OPEN ACCESS journal. To maintain the publication and dissemination of high-quality articles, our journal incurs Article Processing Charge of USD 200 for each accepted papers (<http://section.iaesonline.com/index.php/IJEEI/about/submissions#authorFees>). Your paper will be scheduled after your payment reached us.

Looking forward to hearing from you.

Best Regards,
Dr. Munawar Riyadi
IJEEI Editor
