Please check only the following items for accuracy and clarity:

- Names, Affiliations, and Biographies
- Manuscript Titles, Subtitles, and Headings
- Figures, Tables, and Equations*

* Equation note: In the proofing system, some equations may appear smaller than the surrounding text. This display error will not affect the final print or electronic version of your manuscript.

When you have finished, please click the "I'm finished proofing" button at the top of the page to let IGI Global know that you completed your review. Please note that you will be unable to add any additional annotations after clicking the button. This will only affect your profile; co-authors or editors will still be able to provide annotations to the document.

Deadline Extensions: The printing date for this publication has already been reserved with a commercial printing company and it is important that you act on this proof request as soon as possible. If, for any reason, you cannot adhere to this deadline, please let us know as soon as possible before the expiration date and we will discuss the possibility of an extension with you. If IGI Global does not hear from you by the due date listed below, IGI Global reserves the right to send the publication to print without your final revision suggestions. Please note that revisions submitted after the proofing deadline cannot be accommodated and will not appear in the finalized version of this publication.

E-Editorial Discovery Proofing Platform: To access our proofing platform, please click the link(s) below and you will be immediately taken to the eEditorial Discovery® Login screen. Once you have logged in with your e-mail and password, you will be taken to the proofing platform where you will have the opportunity to add annotations. The navigation side panel on the right side of the screen will provide a list of all documents in the publication that you currently have access to.

If the hyperlinks below are not working please copy the URI into your browser's address bar:
