to Alex, bcc: me

Dear Author,

Thanks for contributing to our journal in Volume 13, Issue 5, 2023. It was a pleasure to publish your work free of charge.

Here you will find the paper:
https://biointerfaceresearch.com/?page_id=11440

DOI will be assigned soon.

Last year (2022), the journal was not qualified to receive the first impact factor for missing ~150 citations.

This is life, I will continue my work even if the results are not usually as desired.

This email also asks you to help us collect the missing citations to get the first impact factor next year (this one).

Please try to generate at least 2-5 citations from the last two years (2021-2022); only these years count for the next impact factor. You can cite 2-4 citations in each paper. You even if the paper is in the peer-review /proofing process.

Remember that our policy is Platinum Open Access, 100% free for AUTHORS, 100% free for READERS.

Gratitude and I remain open to any!

Alex
