Dear Chika Rahayu,

It is my great pleasure to inform you that your paper entitled Curious Mind and Early Childhood in the Learning of Introduce Early Mathematics using Mini Games has now been reviewed by experts in the field with major revision decisions.

Authors are encouraged to carefully consider the reviewers' comments and suggestions for improvement of the manuscript, as follow:

Reviewer 1

If I may suggest to the editors, before sending papers to reviewers, could you please return ill-written papers with poor English to the author(s) and ask them to improve their writing. They can resubmit the revised and well-improved paper. For more details, see my comment in the article.

Reviewer 2

1. Conceptual background and some criteria/indicators should be improved.
2. The author should explain and present the methodology deeply.
3. Finding and conceptual findings should be explained accurately.
