Dear authors.

Your manuscript will be published on: 29th of October 2018.

We are sending you:

- The last version of the manuscript before publication,
- Protocol of the originality.

Indexation of the manuscript by SCOPUS database will be made automatically. This service is ensured and provided by ELSEVIER publishing. We are not able to influence this process and the speed of the indexation. We are kindly asking you about patience, because this process may take several months. If necessary, contact directly the ELSEVIER publishing through the Help and Contact in the main menu of SCOPUS website (make a click: How can we help you? Missing documents).

Indexation to other databases like: CROSSREF, DOAJ and the others presented on our website will be made with us immediately after the publication.

Thank you very much for your submission and we look forward to further cooperation.

Dear authors we would like to kindly ask you to make some citations to your article or articles of other authors published in our journal in other Web of Science and Scopus indexed journals. This will help you and our journal to be more recognised in scientific and researcher community.

Best regards and have a nice day

Dear Editor team
Potravinarstvo Slovak Journal of Food Sciences
Ing. Peter Zajac, PhD.

Would you please help accepting a minor correction on the Address. On my name, I make a minor correction by writing "Corresponding author email: drdsaputra@unsri.ac.id"

I need this correction because of the policy of our University which require the Principal Investigator email address should be written that way. This is part of the financial responsibility of us as a author. I have made the correction on the final version attached herewith.

Thank you very much for your help.

Daniel Saputra
