Dear Dr Dessy Adriani,

My name is Christian, I'm a coordinator at the German Accreditation Agency for Study Programmes in Engineering, Informatics, Natural Sciences and Mathematics (ASIIN). We may have met during our recent accreditation procedure at UNSRI's Faculty of Agriculture in June.

With this email, I would like to reach out to you concerning the following:

At the moment, we are in the process of assembling an expert group for a two-day accreditation procedure at the Universitas Lambung Mangkurat in Banjarmasin on 5/6 September for their Bachelor's programmes in Agribusiness, Soil Science, Agricultural Technology, and Forestry. The mentioned study programmes are to be reviewed by a six-member panel of experts from both Germany and Indonesia, including a student representative.

In view of your role as study programme coordinator for Agribusiness and your experience with our recent accreditation procedure, we would be delighted to invite you to participate as a member of the expert panel.
