

CERTIFICATE

Certificate of participation as invited lecturer at the 2nd Bajo Palabra-UAM International Philosophy Conference: “Philosophy, Human Rights and Democracy”, Madrid, 12-16 November 2012

The Bajo Palabra Philosophy Association (BPPA) was founded at the Autonomous University of Madrid in 2005 with the registration number 04/07, and it has been dedicated to the promotion and advancement of philosophy and the humanities. One of the main objectives of BPPA was and remains to help disseminate the work of students and researchers from the aforementioned disciplines to broader sections of society.

In accordance with this aim, BPPA organized the 2nd Bajo Palabra-UAM International Philosophy Conference: “Philosophy, Human Rights and Democracy” that took place at the Autonomous University of Madrid 12-16 November 2012.

The organizers of this conference certify that Mr. /Ms. Vegitya Ramadhani Putri presented the paper “Citizenship Model of Indonesia: The Contestation within Welfare, Rule of Law, and Its Crisis” thereby delivering a significant contribution to the advancement of philosophy in general, and to increased public awareness and appreciation thereof in particular.

This document thus certifies his/her valuable contribution to the 2nd Bajo Palabra-UAM International Philosophy Conference.
