Preface

The Consortium of Materials Science and Technology (KoSaTeM) and Materials Research Society of Indonesia (MRS-Id) hold The 5th International Conference on Advanced Materials Science and Technology (ICAMST) on 19th-20th September 2017 at the Grand Clarion Hotel & Convention Centre, Makassar, Indonesia.

Leading Indonesian and ASEAN and International scholars and experts were invited to attend the conference, to exchange views and discuss issues relating to those most important and timely issues in the mentioned topics. The conference aimed to help participants to develop a more in-depth understanding of recent developments in the materials sciences and technology while also provided a forum for analysis and formulation of policy recommendations.

In this special occasion, the 5th ICAMST 2017 involved high level scientists as plenary/keynote speakers. The plenary speakers were: Prof. Dr. Seiichi Miyazaki (Nagoya University, Japan), Assoc. Prof. Dr. Ariando (National University of Singapore, Singapore), Prof. Mohamad Deraman (Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia, Malaysia), and Assoc. Prof. Dr. Risa Suryana (Sebelas Maret University, Indonesia). There were about 80 papers presented and submitted at the conference.
