  Response: Thank you for pointing this out. Accordingly, we have proofread our manuscript to a professional proofread service and attached the certification to the supplementary file. All spelling and grammatical errors have been corrected. Furthermore, we have enhanced the language structure as a reviewer suggested. The blue highlight on the manuscript indicated that we had changed the structure to make the language more readable and grammatically correct without changing the text's meaning or substance. Some inaccurate words and sentences have been deleted. Lastly, thank you for the valuable reviewer comment.
