Dear En. Idris Muhammad,

Please be informed that 1 paper is accepted for publication, however the other one paper with the information as follows still has too many grammar errors and the method and conclusion were badly written and still has not made corrections accordingly.

Developing Mobile Learning Activity Based on Multiple Learning Objects for the South Sumatra Local Wisdom Course

1. Please get a language editor to edit the language used properly.
2. Please use past tense in the sections of Method, Findings and Discussion
3. Please don't use the term "can" so often, it seems like a primary school student's work.
4. Please enhance the sections of Method and Conclusion that were badly written.
5. The language used in the Conclusion section was too bad and needs to be rewritten.
6. There were 3 articles from AJUE listed in the List of References but they were not cited anywhere inside the text. You must cite them accordingly inside the text!!!!

Please see the comments listed in this email and comments inside the draft to do corrections and return the revised copy to me with a Table of Corrections by 15 December 2022.

Thank you.

Regards,
