Comments:
I have reviewed revised manuscript "Enhancement of Non-Holonomic Leader-Follower Formation Using Interval Type-2 Fuzzy Logic Controller."
Authors did not fully answered to the following recommendation from my first review: "Citations of more then one references in a row are written without blank spaces and comma between them, which is not according to journal template. This have to be corrected throughout the text".
Authors should bear in mind IEEE citation style, according to which is the preferred method to cite more than one source at a time is to list each reference in its own brackets, then separate with a comma or dash:
- [1], [3], [5]
- [1] – [5]
Therefore, authors have to correct citations of more then one references throughout the text in accordance with given examples.
