Dear Editor
BIRCI Journal presents

We have read and used scientific articles published in BIRCI Journal.

The performance of the BIRCI Journal was excellent, and the published article helped us conduct research and write scientific articles.

I am Abdul Nadjib. Represent other authors and lecturers from Universitas Sriwijaya, Palembang, Indonesia.

We have completed a scientific article entitled "Accountability Analysis of the Performance of the Regional Development Planning Agency (BAPPEDA) of Muara Enim Regency, Indonesia."

We hope this article can be published in the BIRCI Journal because there are interesting findings in the scientific article that can become new treasures in science, especially in management sciences.

We are willing to go through the review process following BIRCI Journal standards.

Best Regards,

Abdul Nadjib

BIRCI values your team contribution, and I look forward to receiving your revised team manuscript.

Editor and Reviewer comments:

Reviewer #1:

1. Expansion of Research Methodology: This article provides good information about the research results, but the research methodology needs to be expanded. Discuss how the research was conducted, including selecting respondents, data collection, and analysis. This will help the reader understand the basis of the research better.
2. Use of more in-depth references: Although this article provides an overview of the performance of BAPPEDA Muara Enim Regency, it is advisable to use more in-depth references to support the findings. Include previous research or related performance reports, which can provide richer context and a better understanding of the topic.
3. Comparative Analysis: To provide a more comprehensive overview of the performance of BAPPEDA Muara Enim Regency, it is advisable to carry out a comparative analysis with similar agencies in other regions. This will help identify relative strengths and weaknesses and provide a broader view of issues impacting BAPPEDA's performance.
4. Implications and Relevance of Findings: Add a clearer section on the implications of your findings and their relevance in the local development context. How can these findings contribute to improving the performance of the BAPPEDA Muara Enim Regency and its impact on achieving regional development goals?
5. Clearer and Concise Language: Some sentences in the abstract and article text are complicated and long. It is suggested to simplify the sentences to make it easier for the readers to understand. Use shorter and to-the-point sentences to communicate ideas more effectively.

I hope you can make improvements as soon as possible and send the revised article again via this email.

Dear

Abdul Nadjib et al.
Universitas Sriwijaya, Palembang, Indonesia

Thank you for your efforts to make improvements to your team article.

Based on the Reviewers' considerations, the article has, at some point, increased.

However, your team have to improve on a few more points. Hopefully, your team are willing to do it.

Please follow the following revision instructions:

#Reviewer 2:

1. Using a More Detailed Research Approach: This article uses a qualitative approach with descriptive analysis. It is recommended to explain how the data is collected and analyzed in more detail. You can explain how the research framework was developed, how the research questions were formulated, and how the findings were obtained. This will provide a better understanding of the methods used.
2. Review of Research Limitations: Research limitations encountered during research can be a valuable adjunct. Identify these limitations and explain how they might affect the validity and generalizability of the research findings. This will help the reader to get a more complete picture of the limitations of this study.
3. Use of More Up-to-date References: Be sure to use more up-to-date references, particularly in referring to related research and performance reports. This will strengthen the reliability of your article and show that your research is in the right context with previous research. Always ensure the reference sources used are relevant to the topics discussed.
4. Deeper Discussion of the Recommendations: The recommendations provided in this article could be expanded upon by providing a more in-depth discussion of how they can be implemented and addressing the constraints identified. Include practical examples or concrete steps that could be taken to implement these recommendations. This will make your article more useful to readers who want to take action.
5. A More Concise and Clear Conclusion: Review your article's conclusion and ensure it is concise and clear. Rephrase your main findings and relate them to the research objectives. Avoid repeating information that has already been presented, and focus on the important conclusions you want to convey.

Articles that have been revised and please send them back via this email.
